JEWISH FESTIVAL BEGINS THURSDAY

The Jewish festival of Hanukkah (Dedication), which lasts eight days, will begin next Thursday evening, which is the twenty-fifth of the month of Kislev. This festival commemorates the deliverance of Israel through the family of the Maccabees, which consisted of the aged Mattathias, the high priest and his five sons. After their many victorious battles over their enemies, and after the small army under the leadership of Judah Maccabee, which number fully destroyed the enemy, who was much greater in number and led by Antiochus Epiphanes, who was a powerful king of Syria and tried to subject the tribes of Israel, and take away the law which the Israelites received through Moses on Mount Sinai, thereby depriving them of their faith, they then entered the holy temple, sanctified every place in the temple, restored all its holiness, and at last rededicated it by lighting the lights of the temple, burning the anointed oil for eight days. The festival is therefore celebrated for eight days, which are days of joy and happiness, with prayers and thanksgiving to God. According to Rabbi M. Freedman, of Ogden, this festival should not only be celebrated by the Jewish people, but by all nations, for were Judah Maccabee and his followers defeated, the light of the first civilization would have gone out with the destruction of the law.

An elaborate musical program, arranged by the Rev. Freedman and Mrs. Joseph Benowitz, principal, will be rendered on December 17 at 7 p. m. by the pupils of the Sunday school of the Congregation Brith Shalom synagogue.

An invitation has been extended to the public to visit the bakery on any day of the week from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Manager L. C. Mitchell of the company. Five huge twin ovens, each with white-enameled front, each of the latest type and a capacity of 2,000 loaves of bread an hour, are in use, together with the most modern bread-mixing and making machinery in the west.

Santa Knows Good Coal

'Twas the night before Christmas
When all through the house
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mouse;

The stockings were hung
By the the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas
Soon would be there.

As I jumped out of bed
And was gazing around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas
Came with a bound.

His eyes how they twinkled!
His dimples how merry!
His cheeks were like roses
His nose like a cherry!

Then he chuckled, "How jolly!
Their chimney's right clean—
They use Farr Better Coal—
That's easily seen!"
